

EXIM Thailand Supports Underprivileged Children at FORDEC

Mr. Adul Chotinisakorn (second left), Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility Committee of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently led EXIM Thailand's executives and staff to participate in charitable activities and make a cash donation to Dr. Amporn Wathanavongs (second right), Founder and President & CEO of the Foundation for Rehabilitation and Development of Children and Family (FORDEC) on the occasion of its 21st Anniversary at Wat Mahawong Community Daycare Center-FORDEC 6 in Samut Prakan province. FORDEC's mission is to help and rehabilitate underprivileged children and their families to be self-reliant and develop themselves so they will become quality citizens.
