

EXIM Thailand Joins Talk on Impacts of US-China Trade War and Surviving Tips for Thai Entrepreneurs

Mrs. Kwanjai Tachasanskul (second left), Senior Vice President of Business Research Department, Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently joined a round table discussion on “US-China Trade War: Implications for the World and Thailand,” co-hosted by the Thai-Chinese Journalists Association (TCJA) and Dhurakij Pundit University at Dhurakij Pundit University. Mrs. Kwanjai exchanged views on implications of US-China Trade War and how Thai entrepreneurs can adjust themselves to changing situations while ensuring EXIM Thailand’s readiness to provide financial services to increase Thai exporters and investors’ competitiveness in the global marketplace.
